

Vermont Unemployment Rate Holds at 3.6 percent in August

The Vermont Department of Labor announced today that the seasonally-adjusted statewide unemployment rate for August was 3.6 percent. This represents no change from the revised July rate (3.6 percent). The national average in August was 5.1 percent, a decrease of two-tenths of a percentage point. As of the prior month's initial data, Vermont's unemployment rate was tied for third lowest in the country. August represents the eleventh consecutive month without an increase to the unemployment rate.
